The jelly beans in this jar represent how the Universe consists mostly of dark energy and dark matter. Only about 5% including the stars, planets and us is made of familiar atomic matter.

Jar Photo: Fermilab

70% Dark Energy
25% Dark Matter
5% Everything Else